APRIL 2014

Dear Friend,

As I set about preparing this month's set of readings I am spending the week at Sarum College in Salisbury on the URC Wessex Synod's Ministers' Spring School. We spend the week in fellowship with one another and in sessions built around a theme, This year's theme is focussed on worship.

The session that we finished just before lunch was led by one of my colleagues from the Synod and looked at that mainstay of many church services - the sermon.

One of the points that he raised during the session was to make us think about the sort of questions about God and about faith that our congregations might be asking.

This has got me thinking. For I'm not sure that I could confidently say that I know exactly what questions you might have about God, and faith, and church. Therefore, I would like to encourage you to speak to me if you do have questions, and maybe we can think how we might look at wrestling with those questions together as a fellowship and seek after some answers.

May God bless you as you continue to ask questions.

In His name, Martyn
