DAILY

READINGS

*"Love is patient; love is kind; love is not envious or boastful or arrogant or rude.
It does not insist on its own way; it is not irritable or resentful; it does not rejoice in wrongdoing, but rejoices in the truth."*

1 Corinthians 13:4-6

APRIL 2015

Dear Friend,

Christ is alive! Let Christians sing.
The cross stands empty to the sky.
Let streets and homes and praises ring.
Love, drowned in death, shall never die.

Although you will be receiving this leaflet, and then starting to read this month's readings just before we get to Easter Day, clearly the highlight of this month is the celebration of the resurrection. Thus Brian Wren's hymn is an apt way to introduce this letter.

We must not, of course, overlook the crucifixion. It is an important event for a number of reasons. Firstly, it is the place where we can find healing and forgiveness, and it is also a vital moment, for without it there could be no resurrection.

However, we must do more than simply celebrate the resurrection. We must claim the resurrection for ourselves, and allow ourselves to be transformed by it. As Wren continues,

Christ is alive and comes to bring good news to this and every age, till earth and sky and ocean ring
with joy, with justice, love, and praise.

May you have a blessed Easter!
In His name. Martyn
