DAILY READINGS

"May God be gracious to us and bless us
and make his face to shine upon us.

Let the peoples praise you, O God;
let all the peoples praise you."

April 2017

Dear Friend,

This month brings us, once again, to a celebration of Easter. This is the moment that all of history turns upon. This is the time that we look back upon and are filled with awe, wonder and adoration, for the events of Good Friday and Easter Sunday mean that we can be forgiven and also have the possibility of new life set before us.

This should give us pause for thought. How wonderful, how amazing, that the Son of God should die in our place, so that we might know true freedom.

Charles Wesley sums up the wonder of this truth well in one of his famous hymns:

*And can it be that I should gain
An interest in the Saviour's blood?
Died he for me, who caused his pain?
For me, who him to death pursued?
Amazing love! How can it be
That thou, my God, shouldst die for me?*

The reality is that, no matter how hard it is for us to conceive it, God, in Jesus has redeemed us. And so we can lift our voices in praise and adoration:

*Thine be the glory, risen, conquering Son,
Endless is the victory thou o'er death hast won!*

In His name,
Martyn
