AUGUST 2014

*"Love your enemies,
do good to those who hate you,
bless those who curse you,
pray for those who abuse you."*

Luke 6:27-28

Dear Friend,

This month we conclude our reading of the first book of Samuel, and, instead of carrying straight on into the second book, we skip ahead to the first book of Chronicles. We are doing this because the two books of Chronicles repeat to a great extent what can be found in the books of 1 Samuel and 1 & 2 Kings.

As you may or may not recall, we read these three books in our previous focus on the Old Testament, but missed Chronicles out. Therefore, we are taking the other route through that part of the Old Testament this time round!

In our New Testament readings we continue to travel through the gospel of Luke and share in hymns from Hymns and Psalms as well.

As we find ourselves this month in the heart of the school holidays, the holiday season, and what is often a break from the regular life of the church fellowship, I pray that you may find time to relax, be refreshed, and spend time with God.

In His name,
Martyn
