READINGS

AUGUST 2015

*"Heal me, O Lord,
 and I shall be healed;
 save me, and I shall be saved;
 for you are my praise."*

Jeremiah 17:14

Dear Friend,

We are now well into the summer and August is, for many, a holiday month. It is a time to rest and relax, to recuperate and regain our strength and energy,

We do, however, need to remember that God does not take time off. He is always there for us, and His love and care have neither limit nor end. As the writer of Lamentations reminds us:

The steadfast love of the Lord never ceases,
his mercies never come to an end;
they are new every morning;
great is your faithfulness.

(3:22-23)

So, for us, as we rightly take a break from meetings and the regular routines that sustain us, and perhaps even take a break from church itself, we need to work to ensure that we don't take a break from God at the same time.

Just as He is always there for us, so we should always be here for Him; and maybe the quiet of the summer break is the perfect time to be listening for His voice.

In His name,
Martyn
