"The kingdom of the world has become the kingdom of our Lord and of his Messiah, and he will reign for ever and ever."

Revelation 11:15

DECEMBER 2011

Dear Friend,

This month we continue to wait as we journey through Advent and await the celebration of Jesus' birth. At the appropriate time our readings turn to both prophecies about, and accounts of, the Incarnation.

In the meantime, as we await the birth of David's heir, Jesus, our Old Testament readings tell us about the end of David's own life. At the same time our New Testament readings bring us through to the end of the book of Revelation.

As you read, contemplate, and ponder, I pray that God's story might continue to enlighten, refresh, and excite you as you read the Scriptures, and as you celebrate the wonder of Christ's birth once again.

O come, let us adore him, Christ the Lord!

May you know the blessings of the Prince of Peace this Christmas.

In His name
Martyn
