DECEMBER 2015

Dear Friend,

Over the last couple of months I have frequently referred to the decreasing amount of light that we have during the day due to the seasonal change that has come upon us. But I have also commented on the fact that even in the darkness of the seasons, and in the darkness of our own lives, God is always present.

As we celebrate the birth of our Lord this month, we do well to remember His coming and the fact that He has brought light to this dark world. Graham Kendrick summed it up well in one of his songs:

Like a candle flame,
Flickering small in our darkness.
Uncreated light
Shines through infant eyes.

God is with us, alleluia.
Come to save us, alleluia.

May we each see the beauty of God's light in the midst of the wonder of Jesus' birth. May that light illuminate our lives, and may we allow it to shine forth from us to illuminate our world.

May God bless you as you celebrate and rejoice in the birth of Emmanuel!
In His name, Martyn
