DAILY READINGS

"The Lord is good, a stronghold on a day of trouble; he protects those who take refuge in him"

Nahum 1:7

JANUARY 2013

Dear Friend,

This month we begin our third year of readings. While we have already read through the New Testament once completely and have also followed Jesus' life in a chronological way, we have not yet completed a read through of the Old Testament.

Thus, our New Testament readings return to the Acts of the Apostles and the life of the early church. At the same time our Old Testament readings finish off the story of Ezra, go on to read through much of the same story from the viewpoint of Nehemiah, then take in two of the smaller prophetic books in Nahum and Obadiah, before beginning the book of Esther - the only Biblical book not to mention God.

As you begin this New Year, I hope that you might resolve to spend time with God and to study His word. Perhaps this might be a continuation of a practice that is already part of your life, or perhaps it might be something that you are seeking to start now.

Whatever your reason, may God bless you as you spend time with Him and His word.

In His name
Martyn
