his countenance upon you,
and give you peace."*

Numbers 6:24-26

JANUARY 2014

Dear Friend,

As we begin another New Year, and the fourth year of our readings, we both continue as we were doing and introduce something different.

In the Old Testament we continue with our second read through as we begin the book of Numbers. This will mean re-reading some passages, while also reading others that we passed over last time round.

It is in our New Testament readings that we find a slight change. We begin this year by returning to the gospels, and at first, the gospel of Mark. However, the difference for us is that every Sunday our second reading will not come from the Bible, but from one of our hymnbooks, Hymns & Psalms, instead.

I hope that this will introduce a interesting variation to our readings as we look at words written by others who have sought to share the gospel message with us. I have put these readings on a Sunday so that you might be able to look at them at church if you do not have your own copy of the hymnbook. If you wish to borrow a copy of the hymnbook to follow at home, then I am sure that that will be fine.

May God bless you as you begin this year with Him.

In His name, Martyn
