JANUARY 2016

Dear Friend,

As we begin yet another year and wonder once again at the way time flies past us and each moment turns to history in the blink of an eye, we also make some new beginnings in our daily readings.

Having completed yet another read through of the New Testament, we begin again. However, this time we don't start with the gospels, but with the life of the early church as it is recorded in the Acts of the Apostles. We shall return to the gospels later.

Our other change is with regard to our second reading on a Sunday. Over the course of the last two years we have read a good number of hymns from the hymn-book, Hymns and Psalms. I haven't counted how many we read, but it is probably in the region of 300. This year for our second Sunday reading, we will leave our hymnbook behind and turn instead to the hymnbook of the Bible, the book of the Psalms.

Finally, we draw near to completing a read through of the Old Testament as well. Towards the end of this month we begin to read Daniel which will complete this particular cycle in the Old Testament.

May you know God's blessing in this New Year, and may you walk with Him day by day.

In His name, Martyn
