READINGS

JULY 2015

*"Ho, everyone who thirsts,
come to the waters;
and you that have no money,
come, buy and eat!"*

Isaiah 55:1

Dear Friend,

This month leads us through nine different books of the Bible. For most of the month the Old Testament readings are taken up with the last chapters of the prophet Isaiah, but then move on to read the books of the prophets of Nahum, Jonah, and Zephaniah.

At the same time the readings from the New Testament encompass a number of Paul's epistles, namely, Colossians, 1 & 2 Thessalonians, and 1 & 2 Timothy.

Although most of these books are short and it does not, therefore, take a long time to read through them, they should not be rushed. Just like the longer books of the Bible, they contain elements of God's Word and are beneficial to us.

As Paul writes to Timothy (Thursday 30th),

All scripture is inspired by God and is useful for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for training in righteousness, so that everyone who belongs to God may be proficient, equipped for every good work.

May you discover how God's Word can equip you for His work.

In His name, Martyn
