JUNE 2013

Dear Friend,

This month sees us begin the challenging, as well as rewarding, book of Job. There are many people who find Job a difficult book to read because of the way that it deals with suffering. Yet, suffering is a part of all our lives in one way or another, and so we can find that the difficulty of the book reflects something of the difficulty that suffering itself brings to us.

I would urge you to continue to read through the book of Job even if you do find it difficult, for you may just find that in the struggle, and the wrestling with what is written, that God speaks afresh to you.

Alongside Job, having finished our second reading of Paul's epistles, we turn to the other epistles contained within the New Testament, before once again finishing the month with a few Psalms.

May God continue to bless you as you read His word, and may you be open to hearing His voice as you do so.

In His name
Martyn
