DAILY

READINGS

*"Therefore the Lord waits to be gracious to you; therefore he will rise up
to show mercy to you.
For the Lord is a God of justice;
blessed are all those who wait for him."*

Isaiah 30:18

JUNE 2015

Dear Friend,

As I sit and prepare this month's Daily Readings I am able to look out of my study window and see a small part of our garden. Most of what I can see is nothing more than a palette of various shades of green.

But, there are some flashes of other colours here and there - the pink of a rose, the purple of alliums, and the white of daisies. The yellow daffodils and many coloured tulips have disappeared with the passing of spring, and now we await the glorious display of flowers and colour that summer will bring.

All this reminds me that even this small glimpse of a garden pays testimony to the handiwork of God. We are part of His wonderful creation, and creation itself speaks of Him. All we need are the eyes to see it, the ears to hear it, and the mind to appreciate it.

God has provided us with this world to enjoy and to appreciate. He has filled us with His breath of life, and He asks us to reveal His light and His glory to others, just as the rest of creation around us does.

As we enjoy the beauty and fruits of God's creation, may we be willing to bless others by letting God's light shine out from us.

In His name, Martyn
