JUNE 2016

Dear Friend,

This month, along with many other churches, we will be celebrating the 90th birthday of the Queen. She has been a constant in the life of our country - older than most of us, and the only monarch that many of us have ever known.

And yet our celebration is more than simply marking a significant birthday, for we also celebrate because the Queen has been a beacon of faith for our nation. Though she is a woman who has wealth and privilege, she is also a woman who understands her role and the duty that it places upon her. And the reason that she has committed herself to, and persevered with, that duty is due, in no small part, to her faith.

She has said,

I know that the only way to live my life is to try to do what is right, to take the long view, to give of my best in all that the day brings, and to put my trust in God...
I draw strength from the message of hope in the Christian gospel.

May we follow the example of our Queen: trying to do what is right, giving of our best, and trusting in God.

In His name,
Martyn
