READINGS

*"For I am convinced that [nothing] in all creation will be able to separate us from the love of God
in Christ Jesus our Lord."*

Romans 8:38-39

MARCH 2012

Dear Friend,

Our journey through the Old Testament continues this month mainly with the life of Solomon from the first book of Kings. Interspersing these readings are more of the other Old Testament writings that are attributed to him - this time Ecclesiastes.

Our New Testament readings take us completely through the last New Testament book that we haven't yet looked at - Paul's longest letter - that written to the Romans.

With the reading of this book, we will now have touched upon every book of the New Testament, and only have passages in the gospels, predominantly John, left to read.

We shall not give up reading the New Testament once this cycle through it has been completed. I shall lead us through it again, but in a different order.

May you continue to know God's blessing, and may your faith and discipleship be enriched as you read.

In His name
Martyn
