Isaiah 12:2

MARCH 2013

Dear Friend,

The prophet Isaiah dominates our Old Testament readings this month, and will continue to do so for some time yet as we finish the month only just over half-way through the book.

As we journey through Lent and on into the Easter season, it is good that we are able to share in the prophecies of Isaiah; prophecies which speak of God's promises to His people and to the world.

In our New Testament readings we continue with our second journey through the writings of Paul. This time around, we are taking the passages in slightly larger chunks, so as to try and enable us to get a better grasp and understanding of the whole message of his letters.

May you continue to walk with our Lord Jesus Christ as you journey through Lent, and may we all celebrate with joy the glory of the resurrection on Easter Day.

In His name
Martyn
