DAILY READINGS

*"The people who walked in darkness
have seen a great light;
those who lived in a land of deep darkness
- on them light has shined."*

Isaiah 9:2

MAY 2015

Dear Friend,

As we continue with our daily readings, from Isaiah in the Old Testament, then reading the whole of Paul's second letter the church in Corinth and beginning his letter to the Galatians, we should not forget that we are also continuing to celebrate the risen Jesus.

For Easter, like Christmas, is not just a day. In the church calendar it is a period of seven weeks that brings us to Pentecost. This long celebration of, and reflection on, Easter should be a reminder to us that the events we remember and rejoice in are vital parts of God's story.

We need to remember that we are people of the resurrection, and therefore we need to live as if we truly do believe in what Jesus accomplished. For His death and resurrection enable each one of us to know the reality of forgiveness, and to live with a hope in the new life that is set before us.

This is the truth that the Biblical writers point to, it is the truth that we should live our lives by, and it is the truth that we should be sharing with all whom we share our lives with day by day.

May you find blessing as you read God's Word.
In His name, Martyn
