NOVEMBER 2011

*"To the King of the ages,
immortal, invisible,
the only God, be honour and glory for ever and ever."*

1 Timothy 1:17

Dear Friend,

This month we continue our Old Testament journey through the books of Samuel, while our New Testament readings briefly continue Paul's writings before moving on to the book of Revelation.

Revelation is a book that frightens many people and often people shy away from reading it. But let me urge to you to persevere with the readings. It is true to say it is not always an easy book, but in the midst of all the imagery there are wonderful promises. Please also take time to consider the letters to the churches that are contained within its first three chapters.

You will find the pattern and flow of readings briefly interrupted towards the end of the month as the fact that we enter the season of Advent is marked. But, here too is another reason for reading the book of Revelation, for just as we mark the birth of Jesus, so we should also contemplate and plan for His return.

May you know the reality of God's rich blessing you as you read and study His word,

In His name
Martyn
