NOVEMBER 2016

Dear Friend,

November is a month that causes us to wonder where the year has gone. It always seems to have arrived sooner than we expected, and the turning of the church year to Advent on the last Sunday of the month seems to emphasise that feeling.

But one of the things that Advent reminds us of, is that God exists outside of time as we understand it. Thus, even as we look forward to the celebration of Jesus' birth in Bethlehem, we are also encouraged to look ahead to the time when He will return.

Our hymn-writers remind us of the joy that will abound when Christ returns, and of how we should look with longing for that day.

Kingdom of Christ, for your coming we pray:
hasten, O Father, the dawn of the day
when this new song your creation shall sing;
Satan is vanquished and Jesus is King:

Come let us sing: praise to our King,
Jesus our King, Jesus our King:
this is our song, who to Jesus belong:
glory to Jesus, to Jesus our King.

May we look forward to Jesus' return with joy in our hearts.

In His name, Martyn
