DAILY READINGS

"Praise the Lord!
Praise God in his sanctuary;
praise him in his mighty firmament!
Let everything that has breath praise
the Lord! Praise the Lord!"

Psalm 150:1 & 6

November 2018

Dear Friend,

Martyn has been on sabbatical for two months now and it has been a privilege for some of us to have taken on extra responsibility during this time. It has occurred to me that in order to accept new responsibilities that we feel unfit for, we have to trust that God will guide us in the right way whatever unfolds. It is also humbling to think that as we trust God, so others trust us to take on such roles and responsibilities seriously and with goodwill, and that they support us in prayer and with encouraging words.

There are those in our fellowship who have been prepared to take responsibilities and roles on for many years, and continue to do so willingly and conscientiously. We should treasure what they do and be grateful for it, and it is our part to support them in whatever ways we are able.

Some of us will find our roles readjusting when Martyn returns in December, but our trust in God will remain firm as He leads us into new pastures.

Let us pray that Martyn will return from his sabbatical refreshed, and that he will find us firm in our support of him and of each other, and worthy of God's trust in us.

In His name,

Jill
