OCTOBER 2011

Dear Friend,

This month we continue to read about Saul's life as Israel's king, and continue through to the time of his death. We also follow his struggles with David and begin to approach the time when David becomes king.

In the midst of this we also read some of the psalms that David is said to have written around the time of his difficulty with Saul.

In the meantime, our New Testament readings continue through Paul's epistles, and so we read his second letter to the church in Corinth, and his letter to the church in Philippi.

I pray that these readings are still proving a help to you as you seek to deepen your knowledge of the Scriptures as well as your relationship with God.

May you find God blessing you as you read and study His word,

In His name
Martyn
