SEPTEMBER 2011

Dear Friend,

This month we see the beginnings of the rule of the kings over Israel and how Saul led the Israelites at both times when he knew God's blessing and when that blessing had been taken away. May we contemplate how we can earn God's blessing upon our life, and may we strive that we may not falter or cause blessings to be removed.

September is a month when church life often gets going again after a summer break. We find our diaries are soon filled with a new season of meetings and other events. Sometimes we can find that the daily busyness of doing church stops us from actually being church.

Make sure that as you slip back into the regular routine of church life that you do not squeeze God out, but that you actively seek to hold Him as the focus of all that you do.

May you know God's blessing as you follow His ways and spend time with Him day by day.

In His name
Martyn
