SEPTEMBER 2014

Dear Friend,

As this month begins we find ourselves at the start of something new. For now we belong to a new circuit. The Reading & Silchester and Basingstoke Circuits no longer exist, and in their place has come a new circuit: Basingstoke & Reading.

Thus we begin a new chapter in our journey together. This particular journey is made up of all our individual journeys, and each is a part of the one great journey of faith that began when God created the heavens and the earth.

We know not where that journey may lead us in the short term. We know not what the course of our own individual life may take. We know not how the kingdom of God may flourish in our new circuit. But we do know that our journeys begin and end in God, and that He always travels with us on the way.

We also know that God's people have always journeyed and that their story is laid down for us in the Bible. We continue to read their story so that we might gain strength for our journey.

May God bless you as you continue to walk with Him.

In His name, Martyn
