*"What good is it ... if you say you have faith but do not have works?
For just as the body without the spirit is dead, so faith
without works is also dead."*

SEPTEMBER 2015

Dear Friend,

As the summer draws to a close and we enter the month of September, all those things that were put on hold begin to take our attention once again. Normal life, as it were, resumes. This is as true for the life of church congregations as it is for people.

As our church routine resumes we need to ensure that we are as well attuned to God's will for us as we can be. We need to continue to read His word and listen for His call upon both our personal lives, and the life that we live together as a fellowship.

One new way that we all have the opportunity to do this, as well as to deepen our understanding and faith, is to share in our Christianity Explored course.

During this course we will be looking at the topics of Good News, Jesus, Sin, the Cross, Resurrection, Grace, and following and serving Christ. The course is based around the gospel of Mark, and so this will also give people an opportunity to study this gospel in a little more depth and detail.

I hope, if you haven't already done so, that you will consider joining with us to share in this course.

May God bless you.

In His name, Martyn
