SEPTEMBER 2016

Dear Friend,

Unless you managed to shut yourself off from the rest of the world over the past month, you will be aware that the quadrennial spectacle that is the Olympic Games has just ended. And, although there are many different sports, it is not uncommon for Christians to use the Olympics to focus on the various Biblical passages that speak of running the race.

One such passage can be found in the letter to the Hebrews. It says, let us ... lay aside every weight and the sin that clings so closely, and let us run with perseverance the race that is set before us.

Hebrews 12:1

We are encouraged to continue, to persevere, with our faith journey and our life with Christ, in order that we might do the work God asks of us and bring glory to Him. We are supported in this by the power of the Holy Spirit, and by fellow Christians with whom we share the journey.

And we share in the journey together because there is no prize for coming first; rather, there is a glorious prize for all who finish the race. May we support and encourage one another as we run the race together.

In His name,
Martyn
